

City of Revelstoke Media Release

October 14, 2015
Immediate Release

City Offers Free Transit Service for Federal Election Day

To ensure all residents have transportation to the polling station, the City of Revelstoke is pleased to offer a free transit service on Monday October 19th to take voters to the polling station at the Community Centre.

Residents with mobility challenges can access a free handydart service to take them to the polling station. To use this service, please call (250) 837-3000 to book a pick-up no later than Friday October 16th.

“Voting is an important responsibility,” said Mayor Mark McKee. “We would like to make sure all our residents have the opportunity to cast their ballots”.

Come out and vote, your voice matters.

For further information contact;
Mayor Mark McKee, 250-837-2911
Alan Mason, Director of Community Economic Development, 250-837-5345