Parking and street use was an ongoing issue in April, Bylaw Compliance is increasing educating and compliance to the public. Active enforcement and education will be required to curb this issue before it becomes an active problem in the summer months.

There were a large number of calls for Animal Control in the month of April with 42 calls for service. With a number of more complex Animal Control files this month more time for investigative work has been required in order to close these files, a number of files are still under investigation.
